EXTENSIVE EXPERIENCE IN FIRST AMENDMENT AND DEFAMATION LAW.

Deborah has successfully argued matters before various trial and appellate courts, and is responsible for many precedent-setting appellate decisions in libel cases. She has represented a number of well-known public figures in defamation matters, including Martha Stewart, Kevin Costner, Rodney Dangerfield, Berry Gordy, Aretha Franklin, Stevie Wonder and Steve Wynn, the founder of Mirage Resorts. She also represents corporate clients, including Fluor Daniels, Inc. and Mirage Resorts, Inc. In addition, Deborah advises public figures and corporations on First Amendment issues. She also counsels clients in intellectual property, appellate and entertainment transaction matters.

Deborah has a strong record on appeal. Her published opinions in successful appeals include:

- Lewis v. Travelers, 749 F.Supp. 556 (S.D.N.Y.) (1990)
- Star Editorial v. Dangerfield, 7 F.3d 856 (9th Cir. 1993)
