Ms. Mateo joined Pisanelli Bice in November of 2023. Prior to joining the firm, she worked with the Clark County District Attorney’s Office, as an extern for the Honorable Abbi Silver with the Nevada Supreme Court, and in the Education Advocacy Department at Legal Aid Center of Southern Nevada.

Ms. Mateo obtained her Juris Doctor degree from William S. Boyd School of Law in 2022. During law school, she was actively involved in several student organizations. She served as the Vice President of the Auction for the Public Interest Law Association and as the Symposium Editor for the Nevada Law Journal, in which she was the lead coordinator for the 2022 Sixth Annual White Paper Half-Day Symposium – “Guns in the Sky: Nevada’s Firearm Laws, 1 October and Next Steps”. In her role as Symposium Editor, she was also responsible for editing and acquisition process for all articles selected for publication in the Nevada Law Journal Volume 22, Issue 3, “Affirming Civil Rights through State Legislation”. Her student note, “Fear, Insanity, and Loathing in Nevada” is the first comprehensive look at Nevada’s Guilty by Reason of Insanity plea and was published by the Nevada Law Journal in 2022.
